LONDON, February 16.—The latest discovery made by the Metropolitan police in connection with the Whitechapel murder Friday morning last, by which the woman known as "Carroty Nell" lost her life, bids fair to connect the man Saddler, now in custody, with this "Jack-the-Ripper" crime. The Metropolitan police now have in their possession a sharp, dangerous-looking knife, stained with blood and showing traces of having recently been washed. The blood-stains were examined microscopically by Dr. Phillips, police surgeon, attached to the Leman-street police-station. Dr. Phillips has no doubt that the stains are those of human blood. This formidable knife has been traced to the possession of Saddler, who, as already stated, was a fireman on board a steamer which recently arrived from Turkey. The police have no doubt that Saddler was the murderer of "Carroty Nell."

London, Eng., February 16.—Two expert bank-sneaks to-day robbed a clerk of the London branch of the Bank of Scotland of a leather satchel containing £11,500 in Bank of England notes. The clerk was waiting at the teller's window of the National Provincial Bank with his satchel beside him. One of the sneaks attracted the clerk's attention and caused him to turn. The other sneak took the satchet and slipped away with it. In the confusion both men escaped, and there seems no hope for their capture. The thieves are described as rather dudish young men, and the police venture the opinion that they are Americans. The clerk who was robbed is only seventeen years old. The money is easily disposed of.

ALLEGED WHISKEY-TRUST PLOT.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

Chicago. Lil., Fabruary 16.—Secretary George J. Gibson, of the whiskey trust, has been indicted by the grand jury and tomorrow morning, barring flight, will probably be again arrested and compelled to give bail in the State courts in addition to the $20,000 Federal bond. The law under which the indictment is framed is a section of the criminal code relating to the possession, manufacture, or guilty knowledge of explosives intended to be used for the injury of any building or person. The most important witness was T. S. DeWer, the United States gauger, who, it is alleged, was approached by Gibson with a scheme to blow up and burn the Schufeldt establishment. DeWar was accompanied to the grand-jury room by a guard of five special Goverament agents. State's Attorney Longenecker conducted the inquiry.

The Board of Directors of the Distilling.

In and Cattle-Fooding Company make the following statement: "We are holding our regular meeting in Chicago instead of Peoria for the purpose of ascertaining as far as possible the truth in respect to the charges made against the Secretary of the company. Such widespread publicity has been given to the charges, and so many false rumors are being spread, that we deem it our duty to make a brief statement, Since our election as directors we have devoted our time and best endeavors by honorable methods to the establishment of the business of the company upon a paying basis. We have made such progress in this direction that for many months the company has been earning and paying monthly dividends of one half of 1 per cent., equal to 6 per cent. per annum, on its stock and has in addition put aside a surplus each month. Our business is showing a continuously large increase in the output of every month over the output of the corresponding month in preceding years. Outside competition has never been felt as little as during the usat six months. In the midst of such unexampled prosperity that one interested in the company should imperil the immense interests of its stock-holders by such a scheme as is charged we think no same man will believe. In regard to Mr. Gibson we have to say that he is a gentleman of character and high standing; that he has been a faithful and an efficient secretary to this company, and that we do not credit in the least that he is guilty of the crime charged against him. The interests of the company will, in our judgment, be in no wise affected by this charge."

"To the Directors of the Distilling and Cattle-Freeling Company:

"Gentlemen.—A grave charge affecting my integrity has been preferred against me. I do not need to assure you that it is absolutely groundless, but until I shall be vindicated, as I surely will be when the facts are established and the conspiracy of which I am the victim has been exposed, I desire to relieve you of any possible disadvantage resulting from my connection with you. I therefore hereby tender you my resignation as secretary of the company. I wish to assure you in the most emphatic terms in which the fact could be stated that I am absolutely innocent of the charge made against me, and that I will, it justice prevails, succeed in fully establishing that fact not only to your satisfaction, but to that of the world.

Judge Minor So Decides with Reference to Franklin Street's Extension.

Judge Minor, of the Henrico County Court, decided yesterday, after a hearing of several hours, that the lines for the extension of Franklin street out in the county from the Boulevard to the Roseneath road must be straight as in the city.

Major Robert Sitles and Major A. R. Venable on behalf of themselves and others petitioned the Court not to allow the course of the street to be deflected between these points as was proposed by a syndicate represented by Messrs. Catlin, Gates, and others as trustees. Mr. Catlin had as counsel for his side Messrs. C. V. Meredith and H. R. Pollard and their witnesses were Messrs. Catlin, Redd (county surveyor), Alonzo Philhps, Mr. Redd, Jr., and Dr. R. A. Patterson. Messrs. Hill Carter and Jo. Lane Stern represented the opposing side as counsel and their witnesses were Colonel W. E. Cutshaw, N. W. Bowe, Esq., Dr. N. C. Shepherd, Messrs, James R. Crenshaw, and John H. Montague.

CLAIMS OF THE SYNDICATE.

The syndicate referred to owns forty-six acres of land between the Boulevard and Roseneath road adjoining the Soldiers' Home property on the north and through which Park avenue, Leonard and Kensington streets will pass. Franklin street, if extended by straight lines, would only cross the corner of their property, on which they are spending considerable money grading streets, draining, &c. In fact, some streets are already open. They desire to lay off the streets in almost exact accordance with the old Sidney plan, which would make Franklin run nearly parallel with the Grove road instead of Broad and Grace streets. They insist that as they are spending money to place inhabitants on their property the divergence of Franklin street should be made so as to give egress both east and west to that section, and that the sharp angles that must necessarily result in course of time within the territory between Broad and Main should as well be made anywhere where the land is unimproved as on their property.

The lady in question is the wife of a Government official of high standing. Just before Christmas she took from a clothespress a fur-trimmed cloak which had been laid away since last winter, and forgot to remove from its secret recesses the mothballs with which it was powerfully charged.
Attired in this garment she entered a jeweller's establishment recently opened on Pennsylvania arenue and asked to be shown some diamond rings.

The proprietor was alone in his store.
As the lady leaned over the tray to examine the rings a whiff of the odor of mothballs struck him. With a hurried motion he thrust the tray of rings back in the case and rushed to the door, where he stood for some time inflating his lungs with the crisp wintry air. Then returning, he rang his telephone. All this time the lady customer was standing in wide-eyed wonderment, As soon as an opportunity offered she asked him it he was sick, and he gasped out that he had been overcome by a sudden sense of suffocation but was better now.

The lady resumed her purchasing and

den sense of suffocation but was better now.

The lady resumed her purchasing and selected a costly ring, with a request that it be sent to her husband's address. As she left the store she noticed that some one was apparently following her. In an hour's time she reached her residence and was astonished to find her husband closeted with a detective, who had informed him that it had been reported at police headquarters that a genteelly-dressed diamond-thief had attempted to spray chloroform in the face of a jeweller, and when detected had given her address as this house. The detective had just completed a description of the lady and her dress as furnished to the police when the lady herself entered, and was at once greeted by the official as his wife.

The explanation that followed made the situation scarcely less embarrassing. The ring was returned to the jeweller with an admonition to be more careful in future in noting the difference in odor between obleroferm and most, balls.

Pittersumon, Pa., February 16.—A special from Johnstown says: At 8 o'clock this evening all the lower part of the city is covered and the water is rising rapidly owing to steady rains. On the south side and in Cambria hundreds of houses are flooded and the people are getting away in boats, as all the bridges but one have been swept away. Late to-night it is reported that the Shady crock boom, carrying four million feet of logs, is in danger of bursting and the people are flying to higher ground. There is no communication whatever between the different parts of the town. Reports from points between Johnstown and Pittsburgh indicate very high water, with several bridges and houses washed away as far down as Jeannette. There will be no sleep in Johnstown to-night, as all the lower town houses are descrited and the people are huddled in dwellings on high ground. The snow is melting rapidly, but at midnight the rivers are stationary. Reports from Eastern Ohio and West Virginia indicate a sudden rise in branches, with many bridges.

They make the fight on the ground of public expediency and insist that proper street lines should be established now and not wait for future years, when to do so would involve the tearing down of improvements and entail great cost as is now being experienced around Washington and other cities.

Judge Minor promptly decided that straight lines must be observed, and will appoint commissioners to assess the damages on the syndicate's property, which will be crossed about the distance of an acre on the south side of Franklin. On the opposite side, next to the corner of their land, the distance will be less. The street is to be eighty teet wide as in the city. An appeal will probably be taken.

The fine season will continue to bring in tobacco freely this work. Moderate loose sales Reit to-morrow. Private sales: 14 Burley, 1 wrapper, 8 darks— otal, 23 hogshoads. A number of West Virginia planters were on heavy and healthy demand there is for five and select leaf for home, and more expecially westers occurred to the tower grades of hiers were in good demand and found ready buyers at prices up to last week or any work this season. Common and medium grades of red fillers ran he higher frequently. Light weights, soft condition or absurdly light ideas of sellers in some instances led to rejections. Quotations remain unchanged, outside figures being for more cotory. Cultors and smokers were in rather better supply, but nothing like up to the demand for colory and bright. Utferings of such mee with an active demand at faily last week a gures, to which I add this week 80. 19/2 paid for a few mediums which were not strictly bright. Bed smotors, although in large supply, but which an active demand and an advance of he. on trash to common, all taken for home trade, as the condition as well as the prices shu out experters, who must wait for heavy weights and dry order. St. Louis again took the lead to quantity as well as quality this week. Four days this week it was impossible to sell all that were uncovered, the offerings being 1,000 to 1,000 hogsheads a day. Any irregularity in prices and rejections over and above causes referred to were not surprising when the severe strain on buyers is considered, who had to watch every hogshead dispessed of. From all appearances heavy receipts and offerings are likely to continue for some time, as we are only now receiving tobacco which for want of seasons as well as scarcity of money we ought to have had in November and December. Shippers to this market are now reaping a better harvest in money by the delay. One or two cases of very flagrant take packers always will receive full value for their tobaccos in this market, but thieves had better ship to somewhere else, and when their hogsheads are met with owners' names should be posted up.

Sales of new crop Burley this week, 2,500 hogsheads, against 2,250 this week less typar.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

Washington, D. C., February 16.—The committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States on revision of the Confession of Faith after a very harmonious session, lasting eleven days, completed their work and adjourned at 6 o'clock this evening. The changes made have generally met with unanimous approval. Its work will be reported to the assembly in Detroit next May, and by it referred to the presbyteries for their adoption or rejection. The changes made in the statements of the confession have been of great importance, but have in no way impaired the integrity of the system of doctrine so long held by the Church. This week 191 hogsheads old Burleys were sold privately,

Bark.—Of both old and new we had larger offerings. In eld there were no specially new features, excepting that clean, substantial sorts appear fower every week, the bulk offered being very trashy, undesirable, and as low as for some time past. The offerings of new crop were the largest and beat of the season, with a good deal of very desirable fugs and leaf and with more body than expected, all of which met with prices generally satisfactory to shippers, especially from near and in the Clarksville district, the demand for all such boing good, with buyers ready to pay full prices. Nondescript and light-bodted crops met with poor sale, and are not wanted, hence the great difference between inside and outside figures given this week of 1890 crop dark tobacco, the outside prices being for strictly substantial and clean, with Clarksville lugs sold at 5 to 68cc.

Private sales this week embraced 101 hogsheads of old Buriey and 163 old dark and lugs. New York, February 16.—The cash resources of the American Loan and Trust Company were almost exhausted at one time to-day, and a check for a large amount presented for payment was returned with the statement that five days' notice would be required on it. This was a privilege of the Trust Company under its agreement with depositors. Later in the day money came in from called loans and the check was sent for and cashed. Bank-Examiner Cahill completed his examination to-day and has forwarded his report to Albany. He refuses to make any statement to the press.

affecting values, and local influences governed trade throughout, which was light.
Oats were about sleady. The masket was quiet, attracting little attention outside of the local scalping crowd. The provision business was dull and generally heavy to tone without especial cause in anything which cropped up to-day to account for the downward tendency of prices. The receipts of hogs were rather under previous estimates, but there was
